CONSIDERING ELDERLY RESIDENTIAL CARE ? ...

Moving into Residential Care for yourself or an elderly friend or relative can be a positive step. Granted there is the worry of leaving behind familiar surroundings, but in many cases it can be like moving into a small, like-minded community where you can make friends and have fun.

So what would I be looking for from this new home of mine ...

- ✓ Good day and night care is paramount – it is often the fundamental reason for moving into residential care.
- ✓ Easy access to Doctors, Chiropodists, Hairdressers etc.
- ✓ Good, freshly prepared and nutritious, food
- ✓ Warmth and security
- ✓ Nice facilities (hotel like) – both inside and out
- ✓ Allowed to bring my own things to make my accommodation 'home'
- ✓ Good community spirit so that I can make friends
- ✓ No restrictions on my friends and family visiting me or taking me out
- ✓ Maintain my freedom to make decisions that affect me
- ✓ Regular organised activities and entertainments but also peace and tranquillity when I want it.

You will have others ...

Selecting the best form of care for yourself or a loved one is a very difficult and emotional time. We always suggest that people 'shop around', seeking recommendation wherever possible, and turning up to a home without appointment is a good ploy to see how it truly operates. You should also review the Care Quality Commission (CQC) regulating body inspection report for each home – available at www.cqc.org.uk

Sambrook House is situated in the centre of the picturesque village of Sambrook, which is about 5 miles north of Newport and with in easy travelling from Telford, Market Drayton and Stafford. Operating since 1985, the home has been extensively refurbished and extended, combining rustic charm with modern, hotel-like, accommodation. It is a privately owned and run care home which is registered for 28 elderly residents. It has a large conservatory, two lounges, a dining room and a private garden.

The bedrooms are all comfortably furnished and individually decorated to a high standard. We encourage people to bring in their own belongings such as pictures, ornaments, furnishings (subject to fire regulations) etc., all the things that make it 'home'.

Good food is another essential to healthy living and at Sambrook House all the food is freshly prepared on the day from fresh, locally sourced produce. We are immensely proud to have been awarded the maximum 5 Stars for our food hygiene (T&W Environmental Health).

At Sambrook House we believe life is for living and so we work hard to provide regular and interesting entertainments. We often have entertainers, professional keepfit, a craft club, parties and trips out. Our residents are encouraged to get involved as much or as little as they wish.
